INDEX: VOLUME XI

January—December, 1922.

Abbreviations: (Ed.), Editorials; (N), News Items.

Activities of the Newark Vocational Department, (N), 119.
Adam Furniture, Leslie G. Martin, 170.
Anarchist in the Schools, The, (Ed.), 152.
Annual Dinner of the Boston Vocational Education Society, (N), 83.
Art and Manual Training, (Ed.), 28.
As Others See Us, (Ed.), 153.
BACKUS, ALLEN D.—A Radio for the Haversack, 397.
BAXTER, LEON H.—Tree Surgery, 88.
BEALER, RAYMOND M.—A Course in Practical Electricity, 309.
Better Times Ahead, (Ed.), 277.
Better Understanding Among the Various Agencies of Education, (Ed.), 152.
Big Words, (Ed.), 276.
BOATE, GERALD A.—Ship Ahoy! Where Are You Bound? 272.
Boston Vocational Society Meeting, (Ed.), 121.
Boys' After-School Mechanics' Club, J. B. Scott, (N). 163.
Boston Vocational Society Meeting, (N), 166.
BRACE, RODNEY.—Production and Manufacture of Shellac, 471.
BREWER, JOHN M.—The Need for Try-Out Courses in the Junior High Schools, 85.
BROWN, JOHN HICKMAN.—The Teaching of Mechanical Drafting in the Lower Grades, 15.
Brush Making Developed as a Fine Manual Art, Louis J. Haas, 181.
BURNES, A. S.—Methods of Teaching Prevocational Boys, 248.
BUSINESS Methods in the Classroom, Earl W. Thrall, (N), 81.
Cabinet Work at the Manual Training High School, Peoria, Ill., S. J. Cullings, 342.
Cameo Cutting as an Amateur Art, John Walsh, 18.
CAMERON, H.—Our Shop, 479.
Can College Women Measure Up With Professional Cooks? Ava B. Milam, 350.
CARMAN, KENNETH V.—Results of an Inquiry Concerning Certain Phases of Junior High School Industrial Arts, 251, 373.
Cement Work as a Therapeutic Occupation for Men, Louis J. Haas, 384, 434, 473.
CHAMBERLIN, RUTH ELIZABETH.—Out of a Square Foot of Leather, 475.
Changing Conditions and New Problems, (Ed.), 402.
Checking Up Home Jobs, (N), 501.
Children's Exposition, A, Charles A. Kunou, 256.
College Entrance and Transfers, (Ed.), 113.
Color Problems for Primary Grades, Katherine H. Scott, 144.
Commercialized, (Ed.), 276.
Commercial Vocations, (Ed.), 28.
Common Styles of Wooden Boxes, (N), 330.
CONAHEY, LUCIUS Y.—Planning Industrial Work, 178.
CONDON, ROBERT S.—Small Arbor Press for the School Shop, 477.
Conference of Manual Arts Instructors in Oklahoma, (N), 166.
Continuation School, The, (Ed.), 277.
Conventionalizing the Oak, Charles H. Richert and Otis Philbrick, 220.
Cooperative School Work, (Ed.), 316.
Costume Design Pageant, C. Edward Newell, 393.
Course in Practical Electricity, A, Raymond M. Bealer, 309.
COXEN, JAMES R. An Industrial Course in a Small High School, 301.
CRUSSELL, EDWARD J.—Safety Precautions for the Circular Saw, 352.
CULLINGS, S. J.—Cabinet Work at the Manual Training High School, Peoria, Ill., 342.
Custom Work in the Oneonta Part-Time School, (N), 455.
DARNEY, DANIEL.—An Experiment With a Work Sheet in a Manual Training Class, 355.
Developing an Industrial Education Scheme at Columbus, Ind., A. E. Logan, 305.
Don't Despise an Apprenticeship, H. E. Stone, (N), 200.
Don't You Wish You Could? (Ed.), 152.
Do's vs. Don'ts for Patternmakers, W. Jordon, 456.
DRASER, MARY G.—A Drawer House—Practical Home Planning and Building, 429.
Drawer House—Practical Home Planning and Building, A, Mary G. Draser, 429.
Easter Cards, S. E. E. Hammond, 147.
Eastern Arts Association, Leon L. Winslow, 236.
ECKERT, DANA Z.—The Vocational and Educational Guidance Program of the Junior High School, 291.
EDGERTON, A. H.—Industrial Arts and Prevocational Education in Our Intermediate and Junior High Schools, 23, 45.
Edison Questionnaire, The, (Ed.), 440.
Educational Value of a High School Course in Printing, The, R. R. Deimer, (N), 286.
Enforcement of Compulsory Part-Time Attendance, With Special Reference to the State of Michigan, K. G. Smith. 312.
Enough of Leadership, (Ed.), 358.
Enriched Vocabulary, (Ed.), 152.
ERMELING, W. W.—Some Standards By Which to Judge Mechanical Drawing, 427.
Establishing an Automotive Course, Everett G. Glenn, 3.
Every School Its Own Toy Shop, A. Montgomery, 489.
Exhibitions, (Ed.), 191.
Experiment With a Work Sheet in a Manual Training Class, An, Daniel Darney, 355.
Farming and Other Industries, (Ed), 358.
Fit and Unfit, (Ed.), 73.
For a Greater Self-Reliance, (Ed.), 440.
For the Encouragement of the New Teacher, (Ed.), 359.
For the New Year, (Ed.), 29.
FOSTER, BESS ELEANOR.—How a Newspaper Contest Stimulated Toy Making in Oklahoma City, 32.
From Millroom to Paint Shop, Ralph G. Waring, 223.
FROST, CHARLES W.—Home Made Machinery, 66.
General Shop, The, Clarence E. Howell, 261.
General Shop, The, (Ed.), 403.
GLENN, EVERETT G.—Establishing an Automotive Course, 3.
Good, Bad, or Artistic, (Ed.), 402.
Good Teacher, (Ed.), 441.
GOULART, E. JOSEPH.—Some Uses of Intelligence Tests in Continuation Schools, 400; Vocational Guidance in Continuation Schools, 474.
HAAS, LOUIS J.—Brush Making Developed as a Fine Manual Art, 181; Cement Work as a Therapeutic Occupation for Men, 384, 434, 473.
HALL, HERMAN S.—Organizing a Masonry Department in a Trade School, 95.
HAMMOND, S. E. E.—Easter Cards, 147; Projects for Halloween, 437; Valentines, 56.

423073

HANLEY, E. C.—A Practical Method for Applying Solid Rubber Tires, 97.
HARRINGTON, RAYMOND L.—The Human Relation in Shopwork, 340.
Harvey, L. D., (Ed.), 317.
Head-Master, (Ed.), 441.
Heights of Success, The, (Ed.), 153.
HENIG, MAX S.—The Place of the Vocational School in Accident Prevention, 431.
Hepplewhite Furniture, Leslie G. Martin, 337.
HERR, L. A.—The Marimba—A Problem in Science and Industrial Arts, 30.
High School Calendar, Ora Strange, 150.
HJORTH, HERMAN.—Reproducing Antique Furniture in the School, 8, 69, 137, 214, 264, 294, 378.
Holiday Spirit, (Ed.), 482.
Home Made Machinery, Charles W. Frost, 66.
Honor System, (Ed.), 112.
HOSTETTER, D. RALPH.—Vocational Guidance in Rural Communities, 174.
House Built by Vocational Class, E. P. Fait, (N), 34.
Household Mechanics Course, A. N. C. Tock, 102, 193, 405.
How a Newspaper Contest Stimulated Toy Making in Oklahoma City, Bess Eleanor Foster, 32.
How Blotting Paper is Made, Jane Littell, 55.
HOWELL, CLARENCE E.—The General Shop, 261.
How the Tools Are Cared for in Ellensburg High School, Howard R. Porter, (N), 286.
Human Relation in Shopwork, Raymond L. Harrington, 340.
HYATT, L. F.—A Woven Sewing Stand, 20.
Industrial and Vocational Teacher Training, Homer J. Smith, 333, 389, 417.
Industrial Arts and Prevocational Education in Our Intermediate and Junior High Schools, A. H. Edgerton, 23, 45.
Industrial Arts and Vocational Guidance, (Ed.), 440.
Industrial Arts in the Bisbee Junior High Schools, A. M. Boss, (N), 445.
Industrial Arts Program for the Junior High School, L. L. Winslow, (N), 82.
Industrial Course in a Small High School, An, James R. Coxen, 301.
Industrial Education at the N. E. A., Boston, (N), 369.
IRWIN, WM. J.—A patriotic Project in Printing, 481.
Itinerant Teacher in Vocational Education, The, Edward S. Maclin, 300.
JACOBS, HARRY W.—Pencil Sketching, 229.
JENSEN, GEORGE HENRY.—A Practical Record System for Automobile Gas Engine Courses, 26.
JORDON, W.—Do's vs. Don't's for Patternmakers, 456.
KING, CHARLES A.—Teaching the Miter Joint in a Vocational School, 443.
KUNOU, CHARLES A.—A Children's Exposition, 256.
Let's Get Busy Again With Manual and Industrial Arts, (Ed.), 72.
LITTELL, JANE.—How Blotting Paper is Made, 55; Reclaiming Old Magazines, 304.
LOCKE, JOHN F.—Related Subjects in the Printing Trade School, 467.
LOGAN, A. E.—Developing an Industrial Education Scheme at Columbus, Ind., 305.
MAC DONALD, D. J.—Trade and Industrial Education and Industrial Arts, 209.
Machine or Hand-Made, (Ed.), 235.
MACLIN, EDWARD S.—The Itinerant Teacher in Vocational Education, 300.
Maintaining the Proper Balance in Drawing and Design, (Ed.), 235.
Making Concrete Surfaces More Attractive, R. E. Watkins, 60.
Man's Word, A, (Ed.), 317.
Manual Arts Course in Indianapolis, (N), 162.
Manual Training and Its New Chance, (Ed.), 234.
Manual Training Magazine Changes Its Name, (Ed.), 359.
Manual Training Teacher and the Part-Time School, The, Arthur B. Mays, 101.
Marimba—A Problem in Science and Industrial Arts, The, L. A. Herr, 30.
MARTIN, LESLIE G.—Adam Furniture, 170; Hepplewhite Furniture, 337.
MAYS, ARTHUR B.—The Manual Training Teacher and the Part-Time School, 101; The Mechanic Teacher, 217.
MC CALL, A. B.—The Mechanical Drawing Instructor and the Industries, 267.
MCDONALD, D. J.—Tests in Manual Subjects, 125.
MCDOUGALL, H. R.—Vocational Guidance in High Schools, 133.
MCGINNIS, CHARLES H.—Practical Use of Rules in the Print Shop, 188.
Measuring Freehand Drawing, (Ed.), 316.
Mechanical Drawing for High Schools, Carl L. Svensen, 347.
Mechanical Drawing Instructor and the Industries, A. B. McCall, 267.
Mechanic-Teacher, The, Arthur B. Mays, 217.
Methods of Teaching Prevocational Boys, A. S. Burnes, 248.
Methods Which Make Domestic Art Interesting and Practical, M. L. Wisner, 219.
MILAM, AVA B.—Can College Women Measure Up With Professional Cooks? 350.
MOEHLMAN, ARTHUR B.—Plan for the Organization of Vocational and Trade Education in the Detroit Public Schools, 421, 461.
MONTGOMERY, A.—Every School Its Own Toy Shop, 489.
Monthly Meeting of Boston Vocational Society, (N), 206.
MOORE, W. CALVER.—Ormolu Rich in Suggestion for the Designer, 51.
National Vocational Guidance Association, (N), 164.
Need for Try-Out Courses in the Junior High School, The, John M. Brewer, 85.
Needs of the Times, (Ed.), 358.
NEWELL, C. EDWARD.—Costume Design Pageant, 393.
New Year, The, (Ed.), 28.
New Year and New Tasks, The, (Ed.), 359.
NICHOLSON, J. C.—Teaching Boys Thread-Cutting, 327.
Notes From Oakland Technical School, Oakland, Calif., (N), 407.
Not More But Better Industrial Artists, (Ed.), 112.
Observe Twentieth Anniversary, (Ed.), 164.
Oklahoma Requirements for Manual Training Teachers, (N), 328.
On Drawing, (Ed.), 482.
One Hundred Per Cent Use of the Industrial-Arts Magazine, (N), 408.
Open Schoolhouse Evenings, (Ed.), 112.
Organizing a Masonry Department in a Trade School, Herman S. Hall, 95.
Organizing and Teaching of Industrial Subjects in a Part-Time or Continuation School, The, Robert H. Rodgers, 1, 62, 106, 135.
Original Greeting Cards for Christmas, D. Elizabeth Roberts, 469.
Ormolu Rich in Suggestion for the Designer, W. Calver Moore, 51.
Oswego District Vocational Conference, (N), 206.
Our Debt to Childhood, (N), 73.
Our Shop, H. Cameron, 479.
Outline for the Study of a Vocation, Jay D. Rudolph, (N), 81.
Out of a Square Foot of Leather, Ruth Elizabeth Chamberlin, 475.
Parents and the Schools, (Ed.), 72.

PARK, JOSEPH C.—The Pergola as a Community Project, 131.
Patriotic Project in Printing, A, Wm. J. Irwin, 481.
Pattern Making as a Vocation, C. F. Brockway, (N), 161.
Pencil Sketching, Harry W. Jacobs, 229.
Pennsylvania Vocational Society Meets, (N), 121.
Pergola as a Community Project, The, Joseph C. Park, 131.
Permanency of Manual Training, (Ed.), 113.
Personality, (Ed.), 402.
Philadelphia Association Meets, (N), 121.
PHILBRICK, Otis.—Conventionalizing the Oak, 220.
Place of the Vocational School in Accident Prevention, The, Max S. Henig, 431.
Plan for the Organization of Vocational and Trade Education in the Detroit Public Schools, Arthur B. Moehlmann, 421, 461.
Planning Industrial Work, Lucius Y. Conahey, 178.
Plasterer's Trade, The, (Ed.), 317.
Poster as a Correlation Project, A, Gertrude E. Taylor and Wm. V. Winslow, 356.
Practical Method for Applying Solid Rubber Tires, E. C. Hanley, 97.
Practical Record System for Automobile Gas Engine Course, A, George Henry Jensen, 26.
Practical Use of Rules in the Print Shop, Charles H. McGinnis, 188.
Present Status of Home Economics Education, (N), 456.
Production and Manufacture of Shellac, The, Rodney Brace, 471.
Projects for Halloween, S. E. E. Hammond, 437.
Putting It Strong, (Ed.), 358.
Quest for Unearned Happiness, The, (Ed.), 316.
Radio for the Haversack, A, Allen D. Backus, 397.
Rake Knitting, Bertha Thompson, 269.
Reclaiming Old Magazines, Jane Littell, 304.
Related Subjects in the Printing Trade School, John F. Locke, 467.
Relation of the National Society to Other Vocational Associations, The, (Ed.), 234.
Repair Work and the Survey, (Ed.), 483.
Reproducing Antique Furniture in the School, Herman Hjorth, 8, 69, 137, 214, 264, 294, 378.
Results of an Inquiry Concerning Certain Phases of Junior High School Industrial Arts, Kenneth V. Carman, 251, 373.
RICHERT, CHARLES H.—Conventionalizing the Oak, 220.
ROBERTS, D. ELIZABETH.—Original Greeting Cards for Christmas, 469; Useful Nasturtium Designs, 314.
RODGERS, ROBERT H.—The organization and Teaching of Industrial Subjects in a Part-time or Continuation School, 1, 62, 106, 135.
Safety First—A Specific Plan for Teaching It, (N), 82.
Safety Precautions for the Circular Saw, Edward J. Crussell, 352.
School Printing, (Ed.), 483.
SCOTT, KATHERINE H.—Color Problems for Primary Grades, 144.
Securing "Goodwill" in the Community, Frank S. Pugh, (N), 370.
Selection and Use of Lettering Pens, The, Carl L. Svensen, 176.
Separate Development, (Ed.), 402.
SHELDON, E. E.—Why and How Rate Students in Vocational Subjects, 167.
Ship Ahoy! Where Are You Bound? Gerald A. Boate, 272.
Small Arbor Press for the School Shop, A, Robert S. Condon, 477.
SMITH, HOMER J.—A Survey of the Mathematics Courses and Requirements in One Type of Secondary Industrial Schools, 91; Industrial and Vocational Teacher Training, 333, 389, 417.
SMITH, K. G.—The Enforcement of Compulsory Part-Time Attendance, With Special Reference to the State of Michigan, 312.
Some Standards By Which to Judge Mechanical Drawing Texts, W. W. Ermeling, 427.
Some Uses of Intelligence Tests in Continuation School, E. Joseph Goulart, 400.
Straight or Curved, (Ed.), 72.
STRANGE, ORA.—High School Calendar, 150.
Successful Evening Vocational School, A, (N), 287.
Summer Diversion, The, (Ed.), 317.
Supporting Our Organization, (Ed.), 235.
Survey of the Mathematics Courses and Requirements in One Type of Secondary Industrial Schools, A, Homer J. Smith, 91.
SVENSEN, CARL L.—The Selection and Use of Lettering Pens, 176; Mechanical Drawing for High Schools, 347.
TAYLOR, GERTRUDE E.—A Poster as a Correlation Project, 356.
Teacher, The, (Ed.), 112.
Teachers Disagree, (Ed.), 276.
Teaching Boys Thread-Cutting, J. C. Nicholson, 327.
Teaching Design, (Ed.), 28.
Teaching of Mechanical Drafting in the Lower Grades, The, John Hickman Brown, 15.
Teaching the Miter Joint in a Vocational School, Charles A. King, 443.
Ten Reasons for Teaching Manual Training, 277.
Tests in Manual Subjects, D. J. McDonald, 125.
Texas Teachers in Annual Meeting, (N), 123.
THOMPSON, BERTHA.—Rake Knitting, 269.
TOCK, N. C.—A Household Mechanics Course, 102, 193, 405.
Trade and Industrial Education and Industrial Arts, D. J. MacDonald, 209.
Training the Consumer to Resist the Salesman, (Ed.), 190.
Tree Surgery, Leon H. Baxter, 88.
Useful Nasturtium Designs, D. Elizabeth Roberts, 314.
Using the Idle Hours. Claud Baird, (N), 34.
Valentines, S. E. E. Hammond, 56.
Value of Automotive Courses, (Ed.), 483.
Veneering the Apron of a Round Extension Table, George H. Wilson, 490.
Vocational and Educational Guidance Programs of the Junior High School, The, Dana Z. Eckert, 291.
Vocational Civics and Industrial Arts, (N), 80.
Vocational Counsel to Young Men, 277.
Vocational Education Association, (N), 122.
Vocational Education Society Meeting, (N), 289.
Vocational Guidance in Continuation Schools, E. Joseph Goulart, 474.
Vocational Guidance in High Schools, H. R. McDougall, 133.
Vocational Guidance in Rural Communities, D. Ralph Hostetter, 174.
Vocational Guidance Meeting, (N), 121.
Vocational Guidance Program, (N), 446.
WALSH, JOHN.—Cameo Cutting as an Amateur Art, 18.
WARING, RALPH G.—From Millroom to Paint Shop, 223.
WATKINS, R. E.—Making Concrete Surfaces More Attractive, 60.
Western Arts Association at Cincinnati, (N), 248.
What a Supervisor Expects to Find When He Comes to His School, 413.
When All Hands Get Busy, (Ed.), 482.
When the Expert Turns Reformer, (Ed.), 190.
Why and How Rate Students in Vocational Subjects, E. E. Sheldon, 167.
Why Painful? (Ed.), 190.
WILSON, GEORGE H.—Veneering the Apron of a Round Extension Table, 490.
WINSLOW, LEON L.—Eastern Arts Association, 236.

WINSLOW, WM. V.—A Poster as a Correlation Project, 356.
WISNER, M. L.—Methods Which Make Domestic Art Interesting and Practical, 219.
Women's Work, (Ed.), 29.
Word in Disgrace, A, (Ed.), 153.
Work on a Commercial Basis in a High School Shop, A. B. Hayes, (N), 120.
Woven Sewing Stand, A, L. F. Hyatt, 20.

PROBLEMS AND PROJECTS.

Adjustable Luggage Carrier, An, Eber L. Moore, 114.
Airplane Model, F. C. Hughes, 157.
Bag Holders, Louis M. Roehl, 242.
Birch Log Birdhouse, H. J. Wieland, 197.
Blueprinting Machine, Charles L. Conroy, 320.
Book Rack Candle-Sticks, Edwin M. Love, 499.
Book Shelves and Magazine Rack, M. L. Curts, 453.
Book Trough, C. Anthony Van Kammen, 326.
Butterfly Table, Lee M. Klinefelter, 360.
Cabinet for Finishing Brushes, A, A. R. Mitchell, 74.
Candle Tray, C. L. Gormley, 77.
Can the Shellac, J. C. Nicholson, 361.
Circular Saw Fitting, L. W. Kunkle, 367.
Clamp Standard, Wm. V. Winslow, 157.
Clothes Line Holder, L. M. Roehl, 411.
Constructive Play, W. W. White, 78.
Corn Scraper, William Grayson, 117.
Craftsman's Method of Laying Out a Sheet Metal Elbow, Robert S. Condon, 498.
Crane Bracket Table, F. E. Hoffmeister, 494.
Crawling Turtle, A, E. F. Morse, 114.
Creole Table, B. N. Osburn, 455.
Crochet-Ball Holder, E. C. Powell, 244.
Davenport Table, E. J. Mathy, 155.
Die Stock, R. E. Dahlgren, 243.
Disk Coil, M. F. Seely, 498.
Dressing Case, Charles H. Stone, 74.
Duck Rocker, The, Glenn H. Osborne, 74.
Electric Shocking Coil, An, Henry L. Buehren, 77.
Finishing Cabinet for Toys and Small Articles, Frank I. Solar, 244.
Fire Screen, F. D. Connard, 364.
First Problem in a Graded Course in Machine Shop Work, A. M. Boss, 447.
Fish Kites—After the Japanese, Katherine H. Scott, 202.
Forging Tools from Carbon Steel, C. O. Hudson, 200.
Four Metal Working Problems, Eber L. Moore, 202.
Fruit Picking Ladder, L. M. Roehl, 361.
Game of Solitaire, H. L. Buehren, 501.
Gear Puller, George Ellison, 451.
Hack Saw Frame, W. R. Challoner, 319.
Hand Dipped Candles, Jane C. Littell, 499.
Handy Detachable Window Shelf, Edwin M. Love, 157.
Handy Devices for the Shop-Drafting Room, A. R. Mitchell, 319.
Handy Dust Pan, Emerson W. Manzer, 155.
Handy Jig, J. S. Turner, 244.
Head Receiver, A. F. Ryan, 36.
Hepplewhite Fire Screen, Burl N. Osburn, 363.
Home-Made Perspective Straight Edge and Bean Compass, Charles W. Frost, 160.
Horse Shoeing Tool Box, Louis M. Roedl, 322.
Household Utility, A, W. W. White, 448.
Hurdle, A, L. B. Perry, 366.
Inlaid Pin Tray, Irl H. Dulebohn, 323.
Internal Shaper Tool, W. Ray Challoner, 362.
Japanese Sandals, Frank Pugh, 447.
Jig Saw, A, C. L. Conroy, 203.
Kiddie Coop, Howard R. Porter, 453.
Kiddie Rocker, Howard R. Porter, 283.
Kite for Vacation, A, H. C. Givens, 366.
Ladderback Chippendale Chair, Burl N. Osburn, 284.
Laying Out a Sun Dial, W. B. Hunt, 241.
Machine Vise, A, Edmund C. Hanley, 280.
Mail Rack, W. J. Knupp, 74.
Making Wireless Sets and Learning to Operate Them at Lane Technical High School, George F. Paul, 246.
Marking Gauge, George W. Berg, 412.
Martin House, F. W. Ziegenhagen, 198
Mechanical Drawing Plate Cabinet, F. W. Walsh, 410.
Oil Finishing Walnut, Charles W. Frost, 365.
Orange Crate and Manual Training, The, C. Anthony Van Kammen, 198.
Outside and Inside Calipers, George W. Berg, 495.
Phonograph as a High School Project, C. Stahlberg, 119.
Poultry Shipping Crate, L. M. Roehl, 158.
Practical Desk Calendar, Harriet M. Higgins, 413.
Press Room Record Plan, Henry A. Breucker, 451.
Prick Punch, W. R. Challoner, 117.
Radiophone, The, Arthur B. McCall, 285.
Records and the School Shop, Kenneth R. LaVoy, 365.
Sail Boat, F. C. Hughes, 39.
Sanitary Fountain Stand, F. D. Connard, 364.
Screw Driver, W. Ray Challoner, 159.
Sewing Horse, Charles H. Stone, 76.
Sign Painting Simplified, Wm. V. Winslow, 117.
Simple Phonograph, A, E. M. Winterbourne, 409.
Sled, A, F. D. Connard, 500.
Smoker's Stand, A. J. Conrad, 493.
Soldering, Robert R. Decormier, 288.
Speaker's Stand, Paul L. Cressman, 283.
Spring Tool Holder, Charles L. Conroy, 282.
Storage Battery Charging Set, George H. Wichman, 205.
String and Button Puzzle, F. I. Solar, 116.
Successful Project, A, (N), 369.
Suggestion for Economy, A, P. I. Skopp, 39.
Swing Cut-Off Saws, Charles W. Frost, 279.
Tap Wrench, Edward Moeser, 39.
T-Tap Wrench, H. D. Harper, 501.
To Take the Place of a Creeper, H. L. Goss, 200.
Tree Guard, F. D. Connard, 283.
Two Dairy Conveniences, Eber L. Moore, 452.
Two Furniture Problems, Reinhold Forkel, 322.
Two Problems in Farm Woodwork, Eber L. Moore, 40.
Two Sewing Cabinets, Lee M. Klinefelter, 200.
Two Simple Metal Problems, Eber L. Moore, 325.
Wall Candle-Stick, Laura M. Rogers, 114.
Wash Board, A, E. E. Sowers, 199.
Window Ventilator, Leon L. Winslow, 114.
Wood Carving, Reinhold Forkel, 449.
Wooden Hygroscope, E. A. McCann, 325.